

SAVE FROM 25 TO 60c A YARD

ON THE NEWEST SPRING DRESS GOODS

This is your best opportunity to save on the very newest goods for a Suit, Skirt or Coat that this season has produced. Beautiful? Yes—exquisite color combinations, excellent fabrics all—and why? Simply that this is our policy: "Not to carry over to the next season what should be sold today." The sale begins with this announcement. It's only a question of a few days on many pieces, so plan on getting in early.

A Big Value in Pure Wool Crispines, 48 Inches Wide.

This is one of the biggest values in our entire line. It is a strong, wiry cloth of good weight that will shed dust and give splendid service. Colors are black, brown and blue. This is a dollar value. This sale, 75c a yard.

Moonlight Plaid, 54 Inches Wide.

A new pure wool cloth and surely one of the biggest hits of the weavers this season. A beautiful mixture of blue and so blended to make it exquisite in appearance. This would make up most effectively for a suit or a skirt that could be worn now or next winter. Regular price, $1.75. This sale, $1.19 a yard.

Overplaids in Solid Colors, 42 Inches Wide.

This is a medium-weight cloth, having the new overplaid effect. It has a good, fine, even twill. A very practical cloth for ladies' suits, and because of its reasonableness in price is particularly good for children's wear. The colors are grey and blue. Regular price, 75c. This sale, 59c a yard.

Light Grey Striped Mixture, 56 Inches Wide.

This is about the weight of ordinary Broadcloth and strictly all wool. This is a new cloth this season and would make an especially nobby suit or skirt. Regular price, $1.50. This sale, 98c a yard.

Light Grey Striped Mixture, 50 Inches Wide.

Similar to above Suiting, only narrower with a bit of cotton carded in. Regular price, $1.00. This sale, 69c a yard.

Checked Wool Taffeta, 42 Inches Wide.

A plain woven, fine wool fabric of lighter weight than a Panama and stronger than a Batiste. This is one of the nicest and most desirable of this season's new dress goods weaves with a slightly plaided effect. Colors, Alice blue, grey and tan. Regular price, $1.25. This sale, 87c a yard.

Mohair Novelty, 42 Inches Wide.

A very attractive cloth. The ground is checked in blue and green, having a spot of solid color woven in. The effect is very pretty. Regular price, $1.25. This sale, 87c a yard.

Checked Suitings, 36 Inches Wide.

These are patterns copied from the expensive suitings, having a cotton warp, which gives it service for skirts or children's wear. Regular price, 50c. This sale, 39c a yard.

36-Inch Black Taffeta Silk

of superior quality, exceedingly well made, of very lustrous finish, of a very rich black and one of the most popular numbers of this department. Being of a soft finish, it does not wrinkle—in fact we recommend it for Coats, Suits and Skirts. Regular price, $1.50. This sale, $1.39 a yard.

A ROASTED RAT.

It Appears in Many Guises, According to a Japanese Legend.

In olden time, runs a Japanese legend, a Buddhist priest became acquainted with a daimio's courier who on his journeys to and from Tokyo would often stop and spend the night at the temple. He seemed to be a man of remarkable intelligence, with whom it was a great pleasure to converse upon all sorts of subjects. One night, as the two were talking together, the courier said:

"I thank you for the many favors you have shown me since we became friends, but tomorrow morning I must bid you farewell and never see you again."

"Why must that be?" asked the priest.

"I will tell you the whole truth," answered the courier. "I am not a man, but a fox. For the purpose of deceiving the daimio I assumed human form. One of his retainers, however, became suspicious and learned my secret. He has made a trap and baited it with a roasted rat in order that he may capture me on my return journey and put me to death. Alas, it will be impossible for me to escape!"

The priest exclaimed in astonishment: "Can it be true that you are a fox? This is a strange story. Since you know all about the trap, why do you not leave the bait untouched?"

"Because it is impossible for a fox, when once it smells roasted rat, to keep from tasting it."

"Why, how is it," asked the priest, "that you, whose wisdom is more than that possessed by most men, can throw away your life for the sake of eating a roasted rat? Among men, even a fool would know too much for that."

The fox answered, with a bitter laugh: "Ah, it is only a roasted rat that can lead a fox astray. But men, though well aware of the danger, are caught by their love of pleasure, of strong drink or of gold. To obtain these they not only throw away their own lives, but they bring ruin upon their families and their country."

"These temptations are only other forms of roasted rat,"—Youth's Companion.

A Bad Habit.

"No," growled Jigby, "I don't like that coat at all. I don't want it."

"But," protested the tailor, "the only trouble with it is that it's too large for you. I can alter it—make it smaller for you."

"If you do that you'll merely contract a bad habit, isn't it?"—Philadelphia Press.

Greek Theaters.

During the entrances of the Greek theaters boys sell dates, figs, bread and wine in the seats.

Parchment Paper.

Parchment paper may best be softened by spreading or rubbing with or dipping into a mixture of glycerin and calcium chloride, which will affect not merely the surface, but enter the pores. The distinctive indurated character of the paper is not altered as by oil, which causes a stiffening of the paper, only to be softened by heat.
